Black it out like a war-torn city, black it out
I still deny, I will decide, I will deny

Positively charged most of the time
Take a breathe and toe the line
I never want to fill this space

Block it out when the bright light's hurting, block it out
I still pretend, it all depends, I will pretend

That nothing went wrong along the way
No regrets, I hear me say
Looking up from both sides now
I still feel the same, I don't feel the same

Next stop, alternative failure
Today isn't turning out that good
Feel like the local resident failure
And I still feel misunderstood

Cut it out, 'round the headlines flashing, cut it out
I'm allowed unique mistakes, yeah, I'm allowed

Drive me away to a better place
Start to believe that I'm a stupid waste
Time moves quicker in my wake
I still feel the same, I don't feel the same

Next stop, alternative failure
Today isn't turning out that good
Feel like the local resident failure
And I still feel misunderstood

Flat knocked down in a city street
Machine won't let me go to sleep
It's obvious today is not my day

I must have offended someone before
Six men kicking through my door
Apparently today is not my day

Black it out, black it out

Still pretend, I will pretend
That nothing went wrong along the way
No regrets, I hear me say

Looking up from both sides now
I don't feel the, I still feel the same

Today isn't turning out that good
Feel like the local resident failure
But I still feel misunderstood

Flat knocked down in a city street
Machine won't let me go to sleep
It's obvious today is not my day

Chemicals spilt in the bathroom sink
Another cockroach in my drink
Apparently today is not my day
Clearly now today is not my day
