I turn you on at 6 o'clock
Why is it that you're such a cock
You smile and tell me that it's a good evening

Then you put on that stupid frown
Talk about the bullshit going down
It's hard to stop myself from leaving

When you're looking like there's something wrong
And looking like it won't be long
Till you tell me all 10,000 people are dying

Then you wipe off that stupid frown
Why don't you take a look around
It's hard to stop myself from crying

Because I wish I was credible as Roger Climpson
I wish I was as credible as Roger Climpson
I wish I was as credible as Roger Climpson
'Cause I don't care [Incomprehensible]

Why can't you see it's just a game
Your Christian viewpoint's just the same
As the arsehole that some phony judge is trying

I'm sure that were all well aware
That Roger Climpson dyes his hair
Doesn't it make you wonder if he's lying?

Because I wish I was credible as Roger Climpson
I wish I was as credible as Roger Climpson
I wish I was as credible as Roger Climpson
'Cause I don't care [Incomprehensible]
