Vanish... is that all you know to do?
To banish all the feelings inside you?
Are you so afraid to cry?
I ran into a friend we used to know
Who perished in the fire in your mind
You set to your entire past
Tell me, d' you remember
Skinny-dipping in my pool?
Do you remember?
Before you were too cool...
To touch you feels like summer in Greece
To touch you feels like summer in Greece
Anguish... is that all you really feel?
Outlandish! Is the place you' re living in
Really central-heated?
Tell me, d' you remember
Skinny-dipping in my pool?
Do you remember?
Before you were too cool...
You are the bearer of loves delight
You make me feel all right. All right
I feel... you're the only one you need
All else falls away when you are really
Set in this moment, from now on
