She can call names
Well I've got news
For her and her friends
Fake girls
Ugly hearts
Everybody hates them

(Whoa)
And she knows it true
(Whoa)
That's why they do what they do
(Whoa)
If only they could see themselves
From our view

It's just jealousy
Because you had me
Then she talks out her ass
For the attention she gets

And she knows
She had her chance a long time ago
But she just didn't know
What she was missing out on

You came along and you tell me
With this change that I've undergone
(Woah) So
In comparison to you
This girl is nothing but
An over dramatic (slut)

Sleeping with any boy
Who happens to be in a band
Yeah (Yeah!)

It's just jealousy
Because you had me
And then she talks out her ass
For the attention she gets

Don't let it give you up

She'll shut up soon enough
Eventually she'll run out of breath
You can count on it

Let 'em hate
Let 'em hate
You're gonna see what they say
Who needs them anyway
Let em hate (Let 'em hate!)
Let 'em hate

It's just jealousy
Because you had me
And then she talks out her ass

Don't let it keep you
I know you'll make it through
Eventually she'll run out of breathe
Count on it

Let 'em say what they say
Who needs them anyway?
Let em say
Let em say
You needs them anyway
Let em say
