And I'd drive it to the end, and jack-knife
I'd drive it to the end and so
Take it straight with you, but in the head it's slow
Drive it to the end and go...
Every mistake I could escape
And I'd feel okay.
Every mistake I could escape
And I'd feel okay...
And I'd drive it to the end, and jack-knife
I'd drive it to the end and so
Take it straight with you, but in the head it's slow
Drive it to the end and go...
Time after time I'd be waiting
Frozen dead in beams,
Another time, I'd be wasting my day
And I know how that seems...
And I'd drive it to the end, and jack-knife
I'd drive it to the end and so
Take it straight with you, but in the head it's slow
Drive it to the end and go...
Did you notice any change
When the blackness hit?
In stasis we would sit, I know.
Did you finally recognise
When it flashed before your eyes?
I only saw you, you know.
I had a little accident...
