If I was a working boy (hey ho away we go)
Fill my pockets up with lolly (why is my cheque late,
Sir?)
If I was a working lad (hey ho away we go)
Life would never get this bad (living down the labour)
If I was a working boy I would buy us all a curry
Then we would all enjoy spending a workmans wages
I'd be a galian lad, you could all come round and
Borrow
All the comforts I'd enjoy bringing in a workmans
wages

(Hey ho away we go) Up the dole and down the labour
(Hey ho away we go) Once round the equator
(Hey ho away we go) Who finds nowt and who finds Favour?
(Hey ho away we go) Why is my cheque late, Sir?

I've heard the frolicking noise passing by a hangmans
Folly
If you had then piggies would fly all in a working day
I've met the hang-a-man, Sir. Everybody roll home jolly
But there's others I'd prefer to give me a working day.

(Hey ho away we go) Up the dole and down the labour
(Hey ho away we go) Twice round the equator

(Hey ho away we go) Who finds nowt and who finds Favour?
(Hey ho away we go) All for a working day, Sir

I have seen the factory boys, everybody roll home jolly
They make money, they make noise all in a working day
I am bright with razor wits, everybody roll home jolly
Still you leave me in the briny all for a working day,
Sir
If I was a working boy I would buy us all a curry
Then we would all enjoy living on a workmans wages
I'd be a galian lad, you could all come round and
Borrow

All the comforts I'd enjoy bringing in a workmans
wages

(Hey ho away we go) Up the dole and down the labour
(Hey ho away we go) Thrice round the equator
(Hey ho away we go) Who finds nowt and who finds Favour?
(Hey ho away we go) All for a working day, Sir

(Hey ho away we go) Up the dole and down the labour
(Hey ho away we go) Give me a working day, Sir
