Glasseating smile stretched to my mouth
Have to learn to accept all the pain
It never matters how hard that I struggle
All my efforts seem in vain

Swallow the shards
Fate takes a hammer to my dreams
Swallow the shards
Every try will let in flames

Make a wish and watch it smashed in pieces
(Walking out just away)
Get so close to fall straight down

Swallow the shards
Fate takes a hammer to my dreams
Swallow the shards
Every try will let in flames

Make a wish and watch it smashed in pieces
(Walking out just away)
Get so close to fall straight down

All my hope is fading
Contemplate what follows
Emptiness and sorrow are all that waits
Ahead for me

Make a wish and watch it smashed in pieces
(Walking out just away)
Get so close to fall straight down

One of them was not just a waste
One of them was just a
One of them was just a waste
