Rather regret the things I've done
Than mourn the thoughts of the things I haven't
All of the failures that weight down on me
Are lessons sealed into my memory
Time is precious so I use it wisely

Seize the day who knows what lies ahead
Won't conform, I'll be myself instead
Now or never 'cause it's worth a try
Don't waste this chance and let it pass us by

Carpe diem

Carpe diem
Live now this time may never come again

Drink now if there's water
Tomorrow our bones may lie beneath the burning sand

Rather regret the things I've done
Than mourn the thoughts of the things I haven't
All of the failures that weigh down on me
Are lessons sealed into my memory
Time is precious so I use it wisely

Carpe diem
Live now this time may never come again

Drink now if there's water
Tomorrow our bones may lie beneath the burning sand
Drink now if there's water

If there's one thing I know
It's this real
If there's one thing I know

It's this can last

If there's one thing I know

It's we could win

If there's one thing I know

It's meant to be
