Sneakin' out with you midnight in june picked you up - couldn't stand to be apart said you knew about an old abandon road where we could park and be alone we were trying to find ourselves but we lost ourselves...at 17, time to waste

feelin' in and out of place
at the beach,
getting stoned on our way home learning love, forgetting pain watching time go down the drain and disappear...
that's how we spent
last summer

hangin out catching rays and lemonades by the pool It was us against the world we were redefining cool We were scared when you were late

Leaving everything to fate
We were only kids ourselves, expecting someone else At just...

17, time to waste
at the beach,
disappear...
that's how we spent
last summer

17, no time to waste feelin' like we lost place nowhere to turn and wondering what the hell to do do we give it up or pull the plug and carry this for years to come and tell no one...about last summer
