"Stranger"

I stand on my own
My origin unknown
Just want you to know
Im more than I show
Lets get this straight now before it's too late
My value is here
It is inside of me
I want your respect
That's what I expect
And there are limits to what I accept
Stranger
What do you read in my heart
Lets get it right from the start
Im a troublemaker
Ill blow your fuse if you want me to
Stranger
What do you read in my heart
Lets get it right from the start
I am dynamite with a feisty mind
That's what you'll find
Its good to be kind
I tell you I try
But I'd rather be true
And honest to you
The price you pay
If you do it my way
