"Saturday Night"

This place is a hole, so dirty and cold it's killing my hope and will Get up every day, and work to get paid stuck in loserville

One day I'll leave I'll pack my bags and you will see I'll be tough - get a life oh,

Saturday Night, and I feel alright dancing the night away I swallow my pain, again and again
through the night

The city around is bringing me down annoying in every way
A lady in green is yelling at me, and I'll go insane

What can I say?
I try so hard but it's all in vain I admit - I screwed up, oh but

Saturday Night, then I feel alright drinking the night away
through the night

Nothing ever happens in my life it's such a shame Wish I had someone to blame
I can feel so lame when everyday is just the same Guess I need to get away - break up - and be saved
