I saw you and I let down my defence
And now I'm, I'm in over my head for you
Sometimes you live and regret
But this one, one thing I need to correct

Chorus

Hello shallow how am I gonna let you go
Hello shallow how am I gonna let you go
Hello shallow how am I gonna let you go
Hello shallow how am I gonna let you go

Shallow I know that your fooling around
She's got the looks but her heads in the clouds
Flash cars and your always out on the town
Going down down baby

Yo I'm going round and round
And in town with a flirt
Gotta bring this girl back down to earth
And when living off me ain't a fan of work
And killing me softly now my cash cards burnt
And I know your nice and unload it right
She's done loads of guys

I come home at night then moan at life
Take a seat let me give you some soul advice
See the flame you got the pain I got
You ain't got the brain to stop
You were laying on top

Your the same way still and your working that same way still
And I know that you know that you walk with a glow
When real love we'll be the talk of the show
And I think that your fine
But I just can't link trash thinking your mine

Chorus

Hello shallow how am I gonna let you go
Hello shallow how am I gonna let you go
Hello shallow how am I gonna let you go

Hello shallow how am I gonna let you go

Uh uh uh uh oh

Now I'm in over my head
Sometimes you live and regret
But this one, one thing I need to correct
Now I'm in over my head

Chorus

Hello shallow how am I gonna let you go
Hello shallow how am I gonna let you go
Hello shallow how am I gonna let you go
Hello shallow how am I gonna let you go
