I've spent a lifetime
Dying for you
So what more can I prove to you
Squaring in circles to show you I care
But your never there are you

Pre Chorus

I finally found out what I am without you
I won't doubt you
So why do I miss you now your here

Chorus

Cos I've been waiting for times like these to come
I've been waiting for you
Just waiting for you
I've been waiting for nights like these to come
I've been waiting for you
Just waiting for you

Yo another day feel sad on my own
But I know that I can't go mad on the phone
Yo I'm all done being bad to the bone
But trust and I'll just be glad when your home

Yo I can't cope with the pain
Just hope and I pray so it's heartfelt with my old vocals laid
And do I know your safe, No
I know you should be home in your place

Cos I've been hating times like these
When a girl that I wanted to find in my sheets
I feel bad cos my whole mind weeps
I don't wanna make love on the line for nine weeks

Thinking the worst just to wind myself up
First verse a rhyme you might trust
Yo and I climb for one touch
When your gone wanna make this self destruct
I think damn

I've spent a lifetime
Talking away so what more can I say to you
Sometimes I black out
Time passes my way
So I'm sailing for days
To you

Pre Chorus

I've finally found out what I am without you
I won't doubt you
So why do I miss you now your here

Chorus

Cos I've been waiting for times like these to come
I've been waiting for you
Just waiting for you
I've been waiting for nights like these to come
I've been waiting for you
Just waiting for you

Chorus x5 to fade
