Smokeless lights up
There's no way that I can go
Through the heroes that I owe
Task force, marched out
With the people that I know
And the records down below

Climbing the stairs out from the club
Kissing the lights, missing your love
Up to the streets with you on my mind
The walk starts again but you'll never be mine

I want you more
I can't help but want you more
I can't stop chasing your love
I want you more
I can't help but want you more
I can't stop chasing your love

Chasing your love
I can't help but want you more
I can't always go this slow
And might stop living again

Long lost, cad rides
Through the city that I love
All the place you tearing off
Movement, pulled in
And the records that they play
Never touch you the same way

Burning the stairs out from the club
Kissing the light, missing your love
Up to the streets with you on my mind
The walk starts again but you'll never be mine

I want you more
I can't help but want you more
I can't stop chasing your love
I want you more
I can't help but want you more
I can't stop chasing your love

Chasing your love
I can't help but want you more
I can't always go this slow
And might stop living again

And the world is still the same tonight
And the world still right here, right here
As I open my eyes
It's almost the same as I left it

I want you more
I can't help but want you more
I can't stop chasing your love
I want you more
I can't help but want you more
I can't stop chasing your love

Chasing your love
I can't help but want you more
I can't always go this slow
And might stop living again
