If a picture is worth a thousand words.
Than yours is worth a million more.
Time has come between beauty at it's best.
And you know it, and you know it.
So call the medic, call him quick
Let's tell him that we're over it.
I've never seen a brighter day
And you know this, and you know this

[Chorus:]

So don't you say you love
It's alright for me, to give it up and I know
So don't you say you love.

If you feelings could give a poor kid food.
Than you could feed the world plus two.
All I ask is that we don't give up.
And you know it, and you know it.
So call the medic, call him quick
Let's tell him that we're over it.
We'll never see a darker day
And you know this, and you know this.

So don't you say you love
It's alright for me, to give it up and I know
So don't you say you love.
And I know that I, I will be the one to show.
So don't you say you love.

(Don't you say your feeling this.)
