The sky's been empty for three days.
Just waiting on some rain to make it proud. Oh.
These clouds are known for pouring following their epic story
Between the past and now.

The Sun now it was all alone VS the Moon.
She said "It's right in front of your eyes."
And I will never forget, the things that you have said to
me,
No I will never forget.

They say the battle's just begun.
I say there's nothing else that shuns so cunningly. Oh.
This world is fierce with action, this calls for no
distractions
I've watched it take her life. I've watched it take her life and flee.

The Sun now it was all alone VS the Moon.
She said "It's right in front of your eyes."
And I will never forget, the things that you have said to
me,
All the moments we've shared,
You've held your head with dignity for me. (yeah, yeah)

I'm not okay. But I've known from the start that everything you did for me,
You gave your all. So I'll give my heart and anything you ask,
Anything you ask of me.

The Sun now it was all alone VS the Moon.
She said "It's right in front of your eyes."
And I will never forget, the things that you have said to
me,
No I will never forget.
