Repetitious streetlights guide me home
I walk the pavements back to mine alone

I keep on wanting your lies
I should live here like a moment just passed on by
Oh, once the lovers can light and my envy ignited
I'd give it all just to feel what it's like

All I want is to feel true love
All I want is to feel true love
And all I want is to feel true love
All I want is to feel true love

I've checked the figures, it feels like hope is lost
A photographic film, I cut the chord

I keep chasing a lie
Watch you live here like a moment passed me by
If I had luck on my side, give it all
Just to have what they have but it's never enough

All I want is to feel true love
All I want is to feel true love
And all I want is to feel true love
And all I want is to feel true love

Watch you fall through my fingers
Watch you fall into space
Watch you fall through my fingers
Watch you fall into space

All I want is to feel true love
And all I want is to feel true love
And all I want is to feel true love
And all I want is to feel true love
