theres one thing i love abt our love
its entirely unspoken so we'll nevr be broken up thats the thing i love abt our love i want to be heard when i say "im sorry" regret that i dont have a different story i want you to come to my house i want you to come over to my house you dont deserve to have to say yr sorry the one thing i heard from yr pretty story why dont you come over to my house why dont you come on over to my house i want you to come over to my house now there are times i think enoughts enough
there are times i think enoughts enough the situation's not progressing and ethically it's pretty fucked but every time i see you it's just nevr enough
i want to be heard when i say "im sorry"
regret that i dont have a different story
the one thing i heard from yr pretty story
now now now now now now now now
regret that i dont have a different story
the one thing i heard from yr pretty story
