Today just another day
My wheels stopped to spin
I cant recognize the faces within
My head, everythings so strange
Im standing alone, everybodys
Walking away from me

All I ever see..

Im drowning in my head
Im crawling out of my skin
You tore my soul apart
And now the pices wont fit
Ive changed my mind
Lets go back in time
Attempt to make a change
To my self i lie

WHY wont the cloudness ever clear
HATE this bullshit atmosphear
TELL me something differently
I wont become this way

All I ever see
Is the world up in my head
Everything just seems so dead
I tryed to make it back
But all in vain

Ive tryed, day and night
To in the darkness find a light
Nothings more, and nothings less
I have to find a way to clean up
This mess before this burden
Falls back on me
