Wayne:

She had seen Him there in Calvary
Bearing all the guilt and shame
She had almost felt the nails
As it pierced His blessed hands
All her hopes and dreams had vanished
She thought all's in vain
Then she heard Him whisper softly
"Mary I'm alive again"

Chorus: All

He is risen, He is risen everybody needs to know
He's alive death is defeated
Let the whole world stand in awe
He is risen, He is risen
He has opened heavens door

Wayne:

Through His death He rose to life forevermore
ALL
OOOOOhhh

Cheary:

Ooohooo yea Lord,
They were walking home so slowly with a sad and bitter heart
They had left behind their Master whom the cross has torn apart

Jessica:

When the stranger walked beside them just to see them through
They can feel their hearts on fire
And then suddenly they knew

(Chorus Parts)

He is risen, He is risen everybody needs to know
He's alive death is defeated
Let the whole world stand in awe
He is risen, He is risen
He has opened heavens door
Jessica:

Through His death He rose to life
Forevermore

Huai:
They had watched in solemn silence
As the Son of God was slain
They had wanted to protect Him
And bring comfort to His pain

Jomar:
Yet they knew that in His suffering
Was the greatest gain, yeah
When they saw Him rise in glory
All the angels sung in praise

(Chorus Parts)
