My imagination starts working over time when you come near
Oh it really really does (Oh it really really does)
And if you're not around, I'll close my eyes and soon you will appear
Oh really really do Oh you really really do

But I wonder if you ever give me a thought
Oh I really hope you do
One though that may change your mind
and make dreams come true

All my tribulations seem to fade away when you come near
Oh they really really do (Oh they really really do)
I fantasize a love that will last for years and years

But I wonder if you ever give me a thought too
Oh I really hope you do
One thought that may change your mind
and make dreams come true

(adlib, skatting and humming)

But I wonder if you ever give me a thought too
Oh I really hope you do
and make dreams come true

Baby, Ooh baby MM I really hope you do
I love you

I really do, I really do
I love you, Hmmmm

(adlib to the end)

(Background)
I really do I really do
I really do I really do
I love you I really do

I love you I really do
