I won't wake up with you again
And this is why
All your sweet talk drives me insane
You're the wrong guy
You were down but now you're getting up
All short fuse and bruises
Now I've had enough
Won't be your wage slave
Won't be jilted
Won't be stigmatized

I won't be seen with you again
And this is why
Through all the abuse I'd just pretend
You're the right guy
You were down but now you're getting up

All short fuse and bruises
Now I've had enough
Won't be your wage slave
Won't be jilted
Won't be traumatised

Don't play this hard games with me
Don't play this hard games
Don't play this hard games with me
Don't play this hard games

You were down but now you're getting up
All short fuse and bruises
Now I've had enough
Won't be your wage slave
Won't be jilted
Won't be patronised
