Vacation to the mountains
For adventure and escape.
Ignoring the warnings
Was their biggest mistake
Pig-squealing lunatics stalking
Crazed demons making a bloody mess.
Hunting their ignorant prey in the
Last desperate moment of darkness.

Skinning dipping, dancing and non-stop fun.
Hulking monsters await who weigh over a ton.
Hiking, camping, oblivious to their doom.
This carefree romp turns into a wilderness-tomb.

Run, run, run for your life!
The nightmare has begun
Inbred maniacs attack and kill,
Your demise before the rising sun
Forest ranger warned you,
Time to fill out the report.
This experience turns you into a savage,
Which is your only last resort.

[Chorus:]
Beneath the awesome beauty of nature,
Lay violence, danger and death.
They were warned... and now they will
Breathe their last breath!
Behind the spectacular waterfalls,
Lies terror, evil, and fright!
They were warned... and they will
Never survive the night!

[Chorus:]
Beneath the awesome beauty of nature,
Lay violence, danger and death.
They were warned... and now they will
Breathe their last breath!
Behind the spectacular of waterfalls,
Lies terror, evil, and fright!
They were warned... and they will
Never survive the night!

Skinny dipping, dancing and non-stop fun,
Hulking monsters await who weigh over a ton.
Hiking, camping, oblivious to their doom,
This carefree romp turns into a wilderness-tomb.

You're driven past the point of no return,
Never gave up no matter how many times you fell.
Broke free of the crushing bear hug,
Fist-choking the beast straight back to hell.

Cry out and struggle to survive
Death! - the demon lives!
A tale so shocking you will weep,
If only they could die in their sleep!

Things will never be the same,
Unspeakable experience has made you gone insane.
Sun rises through the eerie silence,
You'll never forget the trauma and the pain.

Cry out and struggle to survive
Death! - the demon lives!
A tale so shocking you will weep,
If only they could die in their sleep!
