My daughter's missing, so I'll call the authorities
I hope she hasn't been raped
This world's a mystery to me, oh
She was a straight-A student from Tennessee
A little mentally ill, but as parents we never notice these things
She's missing
I hope she's missing us today
'Cause we love you, Gwendlyn MacRae
The school said she'd never amount to much
And her boyfriends always wanted at least a feel or a touch
And now she's missing

Our daughter's missing today
I hope she hasn't been raped
This world's still a game
A mystery to us as parents today
MacRae, we love you girl, Gwendlyn MacRae
Gwendlyn MacRae, where are you today?
