King Kong, King Kong, I don't think clear, King Kong king, the king is here
His heart's still pumping, his blood's still running

With King Kong I'm bored with King Kong's fear, he's driving a hard bargain King Kong, the king is here King Kong, he's like your caveman, he eats money for you
His eyes are still hungry, he's jumping, shouting

King Kong throughout the day, on Monday, on Tuesday, on Wednesday, on Thursday
Tell everyone King Kong is here

I'm like King Kong, I'm right and you're wrong King Kong king, the king is strong

I understand King Kong, he's outrageous He won't stop killing until you're willing, King Kong, the king is strong He's frightening, he starts some lightning, he likes machineries and refineries Always on Fridays and then, he loves them to live in, to eat in, to kill in His eyes are now bulging, indulging, love making

Tell everyone King Kong is here Somedays on Saturdays when, we buy him some towers, not flowers or trousers

His eyes are still hungry, he's jumping, he's shouting King Kong's around again, on Monday, on Tuesday, on Wednesday, on Thursday
His eyes are now showers, his groaping got power
Tell everyone King Kong is here
Tell everyone King Kong is here
