you promised me
things had changed , things had changed

don't worry about a thing
my trust has been disposed

thrown away

put this down to experience and see what happens next (X2) I'm naive

to listen and believe (X4)
this has been

left too long

and i'll be

home tonight

well i guess

i was right

all along , all along

they will learn

about themselves

don't worry , about a thing
seeing you flee , from my life

seeing them colours fly
THIS HAS BEEN LEFT FAR TOO LONG
I'LL BE HOME TONIGHT

I'LL BE HOME TONIGHT (CHANTS)
