Crumble down oh symbols on high
This world is no more
Feel the warmth of horses breath on your neck

Kiss the flames of Loki's blade
Then you might be able to understand what has really happened;
Then you might be able to understand

There is nothing more, only dark;
We have lost everything
This well has run it's course

I feel so betrayed
As if I am going to be murdered by the air I breathe, the ground I walk on, and this water that cleanses me
The air I breathe, the ground I walk on, and this water
that cleanses me
The air I breathe, the ground I walk on, and this water
that cleanses me
The air I breathe, the ground I walk on, and this water
that cleanses me

I will leave our legacy to those cockroaches
I will leave our legacy to those cockroaches

Do you see those lights?
Do you see those lights?
Do you see those lights?
Do you see those lights?

Can you see them?
Can you see them?
Can you see them?
Can you see those lights ahead?

They are angels sent to kill us
They are angels sent to kill us
They are angels sent to kill us
They are angels sent to kill us

They are the angels of death

They are the angels of death
They are the angels of death
They are the angels of death

No, no, no.

The dead
The dead
The dead only whisper their words.

The dead
The dead
The dead only whisper their words.

The dead
The dead
The dead only whisper their words.

The dead
The dead
The dead only whisper their words.

The dead
The dead
The dead only whisper their words.
