Hey babe its great to talk to you again
I can't remember how long it's been Since I heard you say those three words
Oh what I'd give just to hear those three words

What breaks my heart is that I know how you feel
I didnt know it'd be such a tough pill
To swallow down, when my hearts been thrown away
You moved on but I'll never forget that day

[Chorus]

I see you with him and it really tears me up (It's probably nothin')
It's probably just nothing but I know it should be us

I told you
I told you
To never listen to your friends

I told you
I told you
To never listen to your friends

I told you
I told you
To never listen to your friends
(Because it brought us to the end)

I told you
I told you
I told you so
I don't remember what brought it up
A jealous girl got to the bottom of our love
But on the bright side I knew that we'd be friends Thats what you said, "We'll still be friends, that whats what you said

But as it goes, you know that was a lie
Promise was broken the day you said goodbye
And now I'm left with this haunting question why
That's how I feel deep inside, the questions why

[!horus]

I see you with him and it really tears me up
It's probably nothing but I know it should be us
I told you to never listen to your friends
Because it's brought us to the end

*Interlude*

And now I hope you see this is where I stand
How a pretty girl made such a lonely man
With a heart so true
Will never mean it, when she says "I love you"=
