I want you to know
Where ever you go
If life's speedin' by
I'll keep it slow

Ya you make me sweat
But I'll try my best
To make sure I'm better
Than all of the rest

If I am not
Well it's all I've got
I'm trying my hardest
Though it's not a lot

It hurts me to say
That you'd be okay
Even if you
Never stumbled on me

Chorus
I loved when you said
You'd leave me til death
It took away all my breath..

It felt like the weight
Had been taken away
Those are the words
I needed you to say

I loved when you said
You'd leave me til death
It took away all my breath..

It felt like the weight
Had been taken away
Those are the words
I needed you to say

End chorus

Post chorus

Cause I won't sleep...
Until your next to me...

When we were young
That songs that were sung
Made it feel like
There was nothing wrong

I was a kid
You were a girl
You thought you loved me
But you wasn't sure

I was alone
While you were at home
I would just sit around
Writing you poems

Hopin' the words
Would convey how I feel
Letting you know
That this love was for real..

Chorus
I loved when you said
You'd leave me til death

It took away all my breath..

It felt like the weight
Had been taken away
Those are the words
I needed you to say

I loved when you said
You'd leave me til death
It took away all my breath..

It felt like the weight
Had been taken away
Those are the words
I needed you to say

End chorus

It was just me, you, and the stereo
Letting the lyrics just take us home

When it's just me and I'm feeling alone
Got my eyes on your picture, hand on the phone

Hopin' you'll call just to drop a hello
And to say that you miss me, cause I miss you too

I know that you need me, I know what you want
I'm just here to remind you, incase you forgot...

Chorus

I loved when you said
You'd leave me til death
It took away all my breath..

It felt like the weight
Had been taken away
Those are the words
I needed you to say

I loved when you said
You'd leave me til death
It took away all my breath..

It felt like the weight
Had been taken away
Those are the words
I needed you to say

End chorus

Post chorus

Cause I won't sleep...
Until your next to me...
