I'm lying awake in my bed
With our song, stuck in my head
Sleep never comes, but that's okay
Unconsciousness is just a breath away

I'm gonna regret not saying anything
Or beggin you to just stay with me
Well I think we'd both agree
That the best thing, is for you to be with me

Well, you were right and I was wrong
I am what's left of this song
You were up and I was down
You were the best thing left in town
You were great and I was lost
When I was boo'd you still applauded
You were night, and I was day
The sunlight died when you went away

Sleeping aids and serenades
Fall on me like hand grenades
It's late at night and I'm still awake
Hoping you'll still feel the same

Thoughts of you and your angelic face
Take me off to a better place
Still no sleep but I won't complain
As long as I pretend your lying next to me

That you were right and I was wrong
I am what's left of this song
You were up and I was down
You were the best thing left in town
You were great and I was lost
When I was boo'd you still applauded
You were night, and I was day
The sunlight died when you went away

Hand in hand, eye to eye
Just say whatever on your mind
Take a breath, and say to me
"Babe you mean the world to me"

That's all a dream, it's in my head
It never happened but I wish it did
Looks like notes and our pictures
Will have to do while I'm missing her

That you were right and I was wrong
I am what's left of this song
You were up and I was down

You were the best thing left in town
You were great and I was lost
When I was boo'd you still applauded
You were night, and I was day
The sunlight died when you went away

Cause I could be him
The one you'd love
I could be him
Don't give this up

I could be him
Forever I'd stay
If I can be him
Then everything will be okay

I never wanted this to end
You know it's true
Every time I take a breath
I think of you

And everytime I think of you
It let's me breath
But breathing just makes me wish
You were here with me

Here with me...

That you were right and I was wrong
I am what's left of this song
You were up and I was down
You were the best thing left in town
You were great and I was lost
When I was boo'd you still applauded
You were night, and I was day
The sunlight died when you went away

Cause I could be him
The one you'd love
I could be him
Don't give this up

I could be him
Forever I'd stay
If I can be him
Then everything will be okay

I never wanted this to end
You know it's true
Every time I take a breath
I think of you

And everytime I think of you
It let's me breath
But breathing just makes me wish
You were here with me

I never wanted this to end
You know it's true
Every time I take a breath
I think of you

And everytime I think of you
It let's me breath
But breathing just makes me wish
You were here with me
