*Chorus*

Cause your one step forward and two steps back
And a mile away with only inches left
And a tear's a lake when your next to him
And my hearts a glass, that's been broken

Tonight... tonight... tonight...

*End chorus*

I'm feeling so enlightened
Yet so suppressed
I'm gonna let you know
That I'm not depressed
And what's happened happened
You know the rest
It seems like life's just one test

And it's sad to say that the time has come
For me to grab my bags and to take a run
You'll try to trip me now but I'm no wayward son
I wanna end this quickly without vicodin

*Chorus*

Cause your one step forward and two steps back
And a tear's a lake when your next to him
And my hearts a glass, that's been broken

Tonight... tonight... tonight...

*End chorus*

At first it hurt to think
That I wasn't as good as the rest
But now I know
Now I know
You can't handle the best
And the best is what I'm at
And if you'd have thought about it

You'd just give me a chance

But we know you won't, no you won't
Ever think about it again
But I'm alive and breathin
So I'm okay
But the scars are there
And I'll survive
Take your stuff
And have a good rest of your life

*Chorus*

Cause your one step forward and two steps back
And a tear's a lake when your next to him
And my hearts a glass, that's been broken

Tonight... tonight... tonight...

Cause your one step forward and two steps back
And a tear's a lake when your next to him
And my hearts a glass, that's been broken

Tonight... tonight... tonight...

*End chorus*

I think it's funny that we end this way
With a brand new beginning on a whole new day
And the clock ticks slowly but the night speeds by
With a second to lose, for the rest of our lives

And I'm watching the clock with intentions to die
And it's watchin me back, with a gleam in it's eye
Cause it knows it controls the matter of time
And the matter at hand, is it controls how we die...

*Chorus*

Cause your one step forward and two steps back
And a tear's a lake when your next to him
And my hearts a glass, that's been broken

Tonight... tonight... tonight...
