Don't make me decide
Just what to do with you and we're on our way tonight
We dance with the left to the right
We stomp with the left, We dance with the right Keep this going, keep it close to home Because in one week or two we'll have no place to go Sleeping on the back of your dreams, but when you around to stuff is covered for murder

What to do, what to do with you and we're on our way tonight, we're on our way tonight My cavalry is moving in to take over your heart, we're locked and loaded
We shoot to kill before we walk away empty handed

What to do, what to do with you and we're on our way
tonight (we're on our way tonight)

Because it's where we go and where we're going

Just what to do, what to do with you and we're on our way tonight

It's what to do, what to do with you and we're on our way tonight
We dance from the left to the right, we stomp with the left, we dance with the right (Linger) Don't leave, don't ever fall asleep in my arms, 'cause I don't know where I'm always headed off to
locked and loaded
We shoot to kill before we walk away empty handed

The pillow was creased as he went to you sleeping, Soft light sleep full of endless dreams
You never notice as I open the door, on the bedside table is what I'm looking for Have you ever taken a switchblade handle in the quiet cover of night?

You gotta hold it high above your head, swing it down, make sure you finish them off right

[Screaming]

Just what to do, what to do with you and we're on our way tonight

My cavalry moved in, took over your heart, we were locked and loaded

We shot and killed, and I walked away empty handed
