I felt you slip away, far away from me
Further from me
You seem to drift

I caught myself wishing you back
As I fight to catch you

Anger, wells inside me
I see me frowning in your eyes

I see the fear in you where none should ever be
I am here for you as I strive to grab you
I see my reflection and the pain scripted across my face
Set in stone

Anger, wells inside me
I see me frowning in your eyes

Far away from me, further from me
You seem to drift
(Far away)

I caught myself wishing you back
As I fight to catch you

Slap me, punch me, kick me
Stab me, burn me, crucify me, kill me
Fuck you, hate you, love you, hate myself

You are nothing to me
I am everything to you
You are nothing to me

I put the fear in you where none should ever be
I am everything to you
