Always a spectacle
Its a public show,
Unimpressed so it's time that I let you go.
Reputations,
From these antics, I may not be pure,
But I'm not all that toxic.
Now I'm checking out,
And enlisting for stable living,
So lets drop the act,
I've found something that's more appealing.
All this dependence on modern machinery.
Come for the week and you'll stay for the scenery.
Tear down the building,
Bludgeon the architect,
Biased opinions from outdated intellect.
Its a spectacle,
Its a public show,
Unimpressed so it's time that I let you go.
Reputations,
From these antics, I may not be pure,
But I'm not all that toxic.
If I wanted to,
Make a comeback would kids receive me?
Unemployment,
I've been ruined by young hands clapping
Sailing.
And we keep,
Sailing.
With a fear,
Of failing.
Listen while they say your name. (Sail on)
We hang our heads and take the blame. (Sail on)
A daggermouth is in control. (Sail on)
These chemicals will take your soul. (Sail on)
Sailing.
And we keep,
Sailing.
With a fear,
Of failing.
