Lay it down one last time, let this be the last time
I have seen the sunrise, just one too many times
With open arms and minds, stay with me till I find
What it is we search for 'cause I know we want more

On Earth as it is in a dime store
For all the amateurs that you've knelt before

(Break my mind in two)
Death's around us
(One more night without you)
Death's around us

(Take my will with you)
They surround us
(Break my mind in two)

One, breathe in to be free
Two, more times and you'll see
Three, it will numb all the pain
How hard is it to be sane?

Won our will to be seen
Raise our hands and we'll scream
Speak your mind and you'll see
What it is like to free

One, breathe in to be free
Two, more times and you'll see
Three, it will numb all the pain
How hard is it to be sane?

On Earth as it is in a dime store

For all the amateurs that you've knelt before

(Break my mind in two)
Death's around us
(One more night without you)
Death's around us

(Take my will with you)

They surround us
