Smiles and her Laughter.
It's the only thing that I've been waiting for
A time, regardless of our Distance, and our Hope, grows greater
Trapped by pretty eyes and letters for all time.
The only thing that I've been waiting for.

I hope it's something Worth the Waiting
'Cause it's the only time that I ever feel Real Thunder Storms could never stop me.
'Cause there's no one in the world like Emily

She's Simple yet Confusing.
Her Sparkling Eyes make me Weak at my words,
They tremble.
Days seem like years in this month of December.
The winter, Coldens me for I have yet to Sleep.
And Never will I give up trying,
'Cause you're everything to me.

I hope it's something Worth the Waiting.
It's the only time that I ever feel Real.
'Cause Thunder Storms could never stop me.
'Cause there's no one in the world like Emily.

There's no one in the world like Emily.
