This is your day with a whole world to face
What is your price to appease
You can march to the beat that puts us to sleep
Medicinal reality

All my life
I've been searching for hope to find
Something more than just
Pawns in a chess game
And blood stained names
Just fall in line
Fall in line

Can you feel the weight of two decades to date
All crashing down on you now
You can march to the beat that puts us to sleep
Medicinal reality

All my life
I've been searching for hope to find
Something more than just
Pawns in a chess game
And blood stained names
Just fall in line
Fall in line

Free from the womb with only a name

Make something of yourself
Before you made a slave
Cause life will not wait
No life will not wait
The sun's gonna rise either way

You can march to the beat that puts us to sleep
Medicinal reality

All my life
I've been searching for hope to find
Something more than just
Pawns in a chess game
And blood stained names

Just fall in line
Fall in line

All my life
I've been searching for hope to find
Something more than just
Pawns in a chess game
And blood stained names
Just fall in line
Fall in line
