Swimming in a sea of green
Nothing ever changes in this asshole scene
I better take a hit and run
To get ready for when the apocalypse comes
To get ready for when the apocalypse comes

Try, I know you try, I know you try to bring me down
With every word, I know the cure, and I won't let you go
Without an answer

Come on and look at the other side
Look at the other side, give it away
Come on and look at the other side
Look at the other side, so take your fucking chance!

Try, I know you try, I know you try to bring me down
With every word, I know the cure, and I won't let you go
Without an answer

Come on and look at the other side
Look at the other side, give it away
Come on and look at the other side
Look at the other side, so take your fucking chance!

We'll give it away
Yeah, give it away

If this is our fate
If this is our fate
Free yourself from the doubt on your route
You're inches away, away
They'll kick and scream
They'll claw at your feet
To lead you astray
To lead you astray
To lead you astray
To lead you astray

Come on and look at the other side
Look at the other side, give it away
Come on and look at the other side
Look at the other side, so take your fucking chance!

We'll give it away
Yeah, give it away

We'll give it away
We'll give it away
