Dear Kelly now you've changed my life and I can't get back to feeling like I did before we met Tell me what am I supposed to do?

I see you've got another guy and I can't beleive you've been playing me for a fool all this time
But I just wanna know

Girl I need to hear the reason cause I'm all confused inside
And i'm sending out this message so you'll know

And it comes with love from me, to you and my heart is staying true now i've found you I don't want to let you go Don't let this be goodbye cause there is no reason why we can't work this out together now and so This comes with love from me to you

And I just need to see you I want you to explain cause I can't stand this feeling knowing you're here today only one step away

This come with love, yeah and maybe this won't matter to you girl But if you say it's really over i'll be leaving here today but maybe i'm just a fool for trying to say

That it comes with love from me, to you and my heart is staying true
now i've found you I don't want to let you go Don't wanna say goodbye cause there is no reason why
we can't work this out together now and so This comes with love from me to you
