You seem to think that times have changed
It's all around beside me what you cry
Endless ever waiting, like the time I felt so jaded
Don't you ever try so where's your alibi?

It feels like someone killed my soul and told me what to say
Now I am old and faded, I'm super jaded, I spend my time alone
Give me back my life, erase me
Spend my time, don't spend my time, yeah
Spend my time

And now you consequently think about
The fate you made, it's what you pride
And the thought of losing face is just too great for you to be the one Who's left behind, you're on the other side

It feels like someone killed my soul and told me what to say
Now I am old and faded, I'm super jaded, I spend my
time alone
Give me back my life, erase me
Spend my time, don't spend my time, no

I'm standing beside myself
I feel like sleeping
Erasing me was
I feel like flying
Erasing me was
But I never do what I say I will Erasing me was, erasing me was
Erasing me was, erasing me was

It feels like someone killed me
So before you take this step why don't you put yourself inside me?
He can never be just like me and I know and you know
But he takes my place

It feels like someone killed my soul and told me what to say

Now I am old and faded, I'm super jaded, I spend my
time alone
Give me back my life, erase me
Don't you spend my time
Don't spend my time, don't spend my time, no

Don't you spend my time
Don't you spend my time
Don't you spend my time
Erase the music
Erase the music
Erase the music
Erase the music
Erase
