I used to think that we were just like so tight wants some company always finding the time
always making the time for us and all the time that we spent laughing, loving always comforting always coming around
will it come back around again I used to think that we were cool never thought that you'd tell me lies never thought that you'd lead me on but you stuck it in my face and you stabbed me in the back now I'm out here on my own all I ever wanted was for us to keep this feeling you cross me once, you cross the line I said come on, come on I'm gonna make you see the light
I'm gonna make things turn out right this time I'm gonna make you feel me now that you've shown me your true colors guess it's time to say goodbye see ya some other time

catch you some other time I said why did you have to be so cat-like, cold-like was it easier to run me around yeah, to run me around you were running inside my head I used to think that we were cool
never thought you'd lead me on
and you stabbed me in my back now I'm out here on my own
all I ever wanted

I'm gonna make you see the light
somebody tell me what to feel or who's to blame did we lead mery seperate lives? everbody that you meet walks to the beat of a different drum
