Standing in the corner

Ordered it's time to go

Who has self-control?
Conflict in the making

It may just stand for reason
Only for the soul

The situation changes
But only for a while

You barely get to see it

Before you've fallen down

The only way to fight it
Is striking back again

Standing in the corner

Ordered it's time to go

Conflict in the making
Who has self-control?

So what's wrong'Orders
Standing in the corner

Ordered it's time to go
Conflict in the making

Who has self-control?

The situation changes
But only for a while

You barely get to see it
Before you've fallen down

The only way to fight it

Is striking back again

Planning in the trenches

Just to fight again
Standing standing
Standing in the corner

Ordered it's time to go

Conflict in the making
Who has self-control?

The situation changes
But only for a while

Igorance or treason will be the final blow

The only way to fight this is taking back your will Planning in the trenches I've lost the will to kill
