"Judas"

Open your mouth, Judas. We're gonna pour some acid
Kids will spit straight in all liar's faces
Let's play cards for everything that's between us today
Winner takes all, losers will stay losers till the end

Helplessness, hesitation, lying straight in the face
Lost by the greed, we endlessly steal our own fear
Hurt by the conflicts, we destroy positive beliefs
Killed by the feelings, we look for the truth in our minds

You've lost something
For flesh, for soul, for blood
