Sons Of Fire-it's time to rise Fire ritual is about to begin-you've got to burn, burn in the flames
You'll get to know the feelings of the burning hatred
Purified lips, purified hands

I'm the fire, so burn, and burn
I'm the fire, so burn, and burn

I am purified and there's so much to be done
Nothing's more decent than the outcome of our work
I shall give you my sweat and with my own cross
I shall cut your throats and make you all bleed

I'm the fire, so burn, and burn
I'm the fire, so burn, and burn

Purified lips
Purified hands
