I have immortal life through
The Blood of Jesus Christ, I
Was unleashed from the chains of sin and death
I will never die, no
Redeemed, life of freedom
Eternal salvation, seated in heavenly places
I am immortal
I live forever

How sweet it is
Not to fear death
And how sweet
To know â€Truth
Now when you lay down to sleep

I pray the Lord your soul to keep
But if you should die before you wakeâ€â€
Go ahead and meet your death
Go ahead and feed the worms
Be content to vanish after your demise
But I will not follow you, no
Your way so pitifully mortal
I've been unleashed from this coil, I leave this life
Immortal!
I am immortal
I live forever
