I read you
And God, I'm good at it
I'm so spot on

Chord shapes in air
Embrace the dissonance
If you dare

And you, Breathing in
Finesse an innocent
From her partying

And I'm high enough from all the waiting
To ride a wave on your inhaling
And I'm high enough from all the waiting
To ride a wave on your inhaling
'Cause I love you, oh
Can't help but love you, oh

What part of "no"
Don't you understand?
I've told you before

To just get
Off my case
This isn't happening
Stop this now

And I
Where was I?
I have to be somewhere
Now where did I put it?

And I'm high enough from all the waiting
To ride a wave on your inhaling
And I'm high enough from all the waiting
To ride a wave on your inhaling
'Cause I love you, oh
Can't help but love you, oh

Is this it?
Is this it?

Is this it?
Yeah
Is this it?
No
Is this it?
Oh
Is this it?
No
Is this it?
No
Is this it?

Yes

Hello, we're back
And we're taking calls
Now what was the question?

And I'm high enough from all the waiting
To ride a wave on your inhaling
And I'm high enough from all the waiting
To ride a wave on your inhaling
And I'm high enough from all the waiting
To ride a wave on your inhaling

Because I love you, oh
Can't help but love you, oh
Because I love you, oh
Can't help but love you, oh
Because I love you, oh
Can't help but love you, oh
