If this is a question
Is maybe, a lie?
If yes doesn't mean it
Does when lessen why

You are held in a cue
Someone will be with you shortly
Say I'm wrong, you decide
I don't believe the words you sing sometimes

But then it's your life
It's your life
But then it's your life
It's your life

But, you've only got one
You've only got one
But, you've only got one

If I chose to spite you
Engage your disgrace
Will song turn to silence
Will mud [Incomprehensible] your face
Are you down to be [Incomprehensible]?
Show me yours and I'll show you mine
Or are you down just to be down?
I don't believe the words you sing sometimes

But then it's your life
It's your life
But then it's your life
It's your life

But then it's your life
It's your life

You've only got one
You've only got one
You've only got one

[Incomprehensible]

But, you've only got one
You've only got one
But, you've only got one

You've only got one
But, you've only got one
