By the time you read this letter It'll be over & pass
But now in this old Hotel it's only millimeters away
I got a glass of bubbles here a Cohiba Piramides mon frère
A corporate suit & a black tie to wear...

Happy New Year, baby I love you
I wish you were here I'm feeling blue
But there's always another chance, always another town
It seems like every time it comes around I'm alone
Happy New Year

London is on fire tonight like there was no tomorrow & if we live to see the dawn we'll be better off starting all over
I don't believe in those dreams & maybe I am naive
But I believe in you & in me...

Happy New Year, baby I love you
I wish you were here I'm feeling blue
But there's always another chance, always another
It seems like whenever it comes around I'm alone
Happy New Year

The waitress stared me down when I sang my heart out...
But I sang... I sang for you

Happy New Year, baby I love you
Ooooooh, I wish you were here I'm feeling blue

Happy New Year, baby I love you
Ooooooh, I wish you were here I'm feeling blue
But there's always another chance, always another
It seems like whenever it comes around I'm alone
Happy New Year
