You don't need a reason
For I know that what I've done is wrong
No one there to warn you
About the way that our moment's gone

Yeah, it's the same
Right or wrong
Yeah, it's the same thing
Right or wrong

These are my suspensions
And I'll never know how this was a lost cause
And both sides are even
They are even and alone

Yeah, it's the same
Right or wrong
Yeah, it's the same thing

Right or wrong

Ah...

And both sides are even
They are even and alone
Yeah, and both sides are even
They are even and alone

Yeah, it's the same
Right or wrong
Yeah, it's the same thing
Right or wrong
Yeah, it's the same thing
Right or wrong
