Love of my life
I don't have a lot to give you what's in my heart is all that I can really give you love undying love is all I have a handful of words that might make you laugh And all the strength you need to make it through all your troubled times I give all of myself to you only you my dream come true

Love if my life you are all I ever wanted to be with you is all I ever really wanted you you've made my life a fairytale you've added love to a life that was so stale

And know that I'll be here always for you when you need a friend
I give all of myself to you
only you my dream come true I've been waiting my whole life for you now my waiting is through all the nights I spent dreaming I knew that my dream would come true

(so many nights)
I've laid awake dreaming I knew one day I'd be with you (ah ah) now all my nights of dreaming are through 'cause my dream has come true dream come true (dream come true, dream come true, dream come true)

my dream has come true (my dream has come true)
dream come true
(dream come true)
my dream has come true

(my dream has come true)
dream come true
(dream come true)
my dream has come true
(my has come true)
